

JCOIN Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI) Speaker Series Presents:

Lessons Learned: Mentoring the Next Generation of Investigators from Racial & Ethnic Minoritized Backgrounds in Addiction

CARMEN L.
MASSON, PH.D.

Professor of Psychiatry,
Substance Use & Addiction Research
Program,
UCSF Department of Psychiatry and
Behavioral Sciences

 Friday December 15th , 2023
 3:00 pm – 4:00 pm ET

This presentation will discuss unique challenges faced by under-represented early-stage investigators from racial/ethnic minoritized groups that impede their ability to persist and thrive in research careers. The presentation will also discuss outcomes for a NIDA-funded science education program designed to support early-stage investigators from under-represented racial/ethnic minoritized groups in their pursuit of an independently funded research career in the addictions field, and lessons learned.

THIS WEBINAR DOES NOT OFFER CEUS OR TRAINING CERTIFICATES
