

ACCJH PRE-CONFERENCE WORKSHOP: JCOIN RESEARCH & PRACTICE

April 11-12, 2023 | Marriott Crabtree Valley Hotel, Raleigh NC
Closed session; Pre-Registration required

TUESDAY APRIL 11

8:00-4:00 Coffee/Tea in Prefunction area of the Crabtree Ballroom

Crabtree Ballroom

9:00-9:30 Welcome and Introductions

9:30-10:45 “Ignite” Talks

Each Hub/MAARC/CTC gets 5 minutes and no more than 4 slides to tell us something exciting you’ve done that might spark the interest of other hubs. Examples: show/tell us about (a) a product you have developed that could be packaged (alone or with other Hubs) for broad dissemination; (b) some interesting preliminary data, perhaps from a supplement or ancillary project; or (c) an activity your team has been working on that may be of general interest. Hubs should not present clinical trial updates.

10:45-11:45 Discussion of Ignite Talks

11:45-12:00 Break

12:00-2:00 Lunch Speakers

Implementation strategies for specialty mental health probation: Clinical case consultation and building resource networks

Tonya Van Deinse, PhD, MSW and Andrea Murray-Lichtman, MSW, LCSW (UNC-Chapel Hill School of Social Work). The talk covers specialized caseloads used in North Carolina probation services for MH/SUD clients.

Buffet lunch will be available in the Prefunction area. There will be time to network at the conclusion of Drs. Van Deinse and Murray-Lichtman’s talk.

2:00-3:30 Reflections from Hubs and Partners: MOUD Implementation Challenges and Sustainability Prospects (Facilitator: Nick Zaller)

A lot has changed across states and systems since these grants were funded. Let’s talk about the changing landscape and its impacts on increasing access to MOUD for persons involved in the criminal-legal system. (For example: state legislation, 1115 waivers, mobile vans, eliminating the x-waiver, bail reform, decriminalization of drug use.) What recent changes have made it easier/harder to implement or sustain MOUD services?

3:30-4:00 NIDA Updates

Glenwood Ballroom Salons III and IV and Prefunction area of the Glenwood Ballroom and Glenwood Terrace

5:00-7:00 Poster Session and JCOIN Reception
